LAVAL, QC, May 2, 2024 – Bausch Health Companies Inc. (NYSE/TSX: BHC) ("Bausch Health" or the "Company" or "we" or "our") today announced its first quarter 2024 financial results and other key updates from the quarter.

"We are pleased with our strong start to the year, delivering solid first-quarter performance, and our fourth consecutive quarter of year-over-year growth in revenues and adjusted EBITDA. Furthermore, all our business segments posted year-over-year revenue growth on both a reported and organic basis. I'm very proud of what our team has accomplished and we remain focused on continuing our momentum by advancing our R&D pipeline, strengthening our balance sheet and executing on our commercial strategies to drive global growth," said Thomas J. Appio, Chief Executive Officer, Bausch Health.

"We are also pleased with other key developments for our business during the quarter, including the appeal decision in the Norwich matter in respect of Xifaxan®, which represents a significant milestone as it relates to achieving the full separation of Bausch + Lomb.

"We will continue to focus on the foundation we set across the enterprise to deliver results and improve the health of patients worldwide," continued Mr. Appio.

On April 11, 2024, the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Federal Circuit affirmed the decision of the U.S. District Court for the District of Delaware in the Norwich matter. In its ruling, the Court denied Norwich Pharmaceuticals, Inc.'s motion for modification of the court's final order. As a result, the FDA cannot approve Norwich's abbreviated new drug application for Xifaxan® (rifaximin) 550 mg until October 2029.

The Company will continue to vigorously defend its intellectual property.
