

Valeant Selected As Lead Bidder To Acquire Dendreon And Its Leading Immunotherapy Treatment, PROVENGE® (sipuleucel-T)

January 29, 2015

LAVAL, Quebec, Jan. 29, 2015 /PRNewswire/ -- Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (NYSE: VRX) (TSX: VRX) today announced that it has entered into a "stalking horse" asset purchase agreement to acquire certain assets of Dendreon Corporation ("Dendreon") for $296 million in cash.

Pursuant to the terms of the agreement, Valeant will acquire the world-wide rights to Dendreon's PROVENGE® (sipuleucel-T) product and certain other Dendreon assets. PROVENGE® (sipuleucel-T) is an immunotherapy treatment designed to treat men with advanced prostate cancer by taking the body's own immune cells and reprogramming them to attack advanced prostate cancer. The product was approved by the U.S. Food and Drug Administration (FDA) in April 2010 and realized revenues of approximately $300 million in 2014. PROVENGE® was approved by the European Medicines Agency in 2013.

Dendreon has been a debtor pursuant to chapter 11 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code since November of 2014. The asset purchase agreement constitutes a "stalking horse bid" in a sale process being conducted under Section 363 of the U.S. Bankruptcy Code. As the "stalking horse bidder," Valeant will be entitled to a break-up fee and expense reimbursement if it ultimately does not prevail as the successful bidder at a subsequent auction for Dendreon's assets. Valeant's role as a stalking horse bidder, and the sale itself, are subject to approval by the Bankruptcy Court. In addition, completion of the transaction remains subject to higher or better offers at such auction and customary closing conditions.

"We believe that oncology has similar characteristics to our current therapeutic portfolios, such as strong growth, high durability, strong patient and physician loyalty, and a terrific reimbursement regime," stated J. Michael Pearson, chairman and chief executive officer. "We have not previously found an economic way to enter this market, but with the unique dynamics of this situation, we believe that this transaction will create significant shareholder value."

Court documents and additional information are available through Dendreon's claims agent, Prime Clerk, at
