Valeant Completes Refinancing Transactions

March 21, 2017

- Extends Maturities of Term Loan Debt to 2022
- Provides Increased Operational Flexibility
- Leverage Neutral Transactions

LAVAL, Quebec, March 21, 2017 /PRNewswire/ -- Valeant Pharmaceuticals International, Inc. (NYSE: VRX) (TSX: VRX) ("Valeant" or the "Company") announced today that it has closed its previously announced refinancing transactions. These transactions include its offering of $1.25 billion aggregate principal amount of 6.50% senior secured notes due 2022 and $2.0 billion aggregate principal amount of 7.00% senior secured notes due 2024, and its borrowing of an additional approximately $3 billion of new term loans maturing in 2022. The Company used the proceeds of the offering and the new term loan together with cash on hand to repay all term loans under its credit facility maturing in 2018, 2019 and 2020, $350 million of revolver borrowings and $1.1 billion of its 6.75% Senior Notes due 2018.

In addition, as part of these transactions, the Company amended its existing credit agreement to remove the financial maintenance covenants from the term loans and modify the financial maintenance covenants under the revolving facility and to make certain other amendments.

"Upon closing these transactions, the issuance of $1.25 billion and $2.0 billion of senior secured notes due 2022 and 2024, respectively, and the tender for $1.1 billion of our Senior Notes due 2018, the amount of our debt maturing prior to 2020 will be substantially reduced," said Joseph C. Papa, Chairman and CEO of Valeant. "In addition, the amended terms of the credit agreement will provide us with improved operating flexibility and a greater margin of safety with respect to financial covenants. Together, these transactions, coupled with our ongoing asset sale process, will enable Valeant to focus on driving the fundamental operating performance of its various businesses. We want to thank the lenders, investors and other financial institutions that supported us in the completion of this important initiative."

See the Annex to this press release for further details about the refinancing and its impact on our capital structure.

ANNEX

Changes to Financial Covenants under the Credit Agreement

The refinancing transactions resulted in:

- with respect to the term loans, the removal of financial maintenance covenants;
- with respect to the revolving credit facility, a reduction of the interest coverage ratio maintenance covenant to 1.50:1.00 beginning in the fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2017 through the fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2019 (stepping up to 1.75:1.00 for any fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2019 and thereafter), as compared to a ratio of 2.00:1.00 prior to these transactions;
- with respect to the revolving credit facility, an increase of the secured leverage ratio
 maintenance covenant to 3.00:1.00 beginning in the fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2017 through the fiscal quarter ending March 31, 2019 (stepping down to 2.75:1.00 for any fiscal quarter ending June 30, 2019 and thereafter), as compared to a ratio of 2.50:1.00 prior to these transactions; and
- An increased amortization rate for term loans from 0.25% per quarter (1% per annum) to 1.25% per quarter (5% per annum).

The revised financial maintenance covenants will apply only with respect to revolving loans and can be waived or amended without the consent of the term loan lenders under the Credit Agreement.

In addition, the definition of EBITDA used to calculate the financial maintenance covenants was revised to permit the addback of payments of certain litigation expenses, actual or prospective legal settlements, fines, judgments or orders for up to $500 million in any twelve-month period, subject to certain limitations.
